Ideas for active learning at home

See how many activities you can tick-off before returning to school!

Watch TV with the sound off and closed captioning on	Climb a tree
Read directions for how to play a new game	Write to someone famous
Keep a nature journal	Bake a cake
Create poetry	Help to cook dinner
Share a recipe with a friend	Play a game with a ball
Plan ahead for the summer	Plant a seed
Listen to an audiobook	Make crafts with recyclable items like stickers, old photos and magazines
Bounce on a trampoline	Learn four words in a different language
Try a food you've never eaten before	Write a letter to a newspaper
Learn about a different country	Play a board game
Build a den	Read a great book
Learn a new skill	Stage an A to Z scavenger hunt, where you have to find something that starts with every letter
Practice your origami skills and make objects to hang from the ceiling.	Assemble a family cookbook with all your favorite recipes.
Play Maths games on Topmarks.co.uk	Play English games on Topmarks.co.uk

Can you add any more ideas to the list? Try taking a photo of yourself doing each activity and make a scrapbook as proof of your action-packed break. Bring your scrapbook of activities into school to show what you've been up to over the break! Remember, always check with a grown-up before doing any of these activities. Be kind and respectful to people, animals and the world around you at all times.
